

One-day Introduction to Flamenco - Friday, February 7th, 2014

If you have ever wanted to sign up for flamenco dance classes and aren't sure what it's all about, this is a great opportunity to try it out. We will have a preview of the basic elements of flamenco dance: arms, hands, footwork, movement and clapping. We will also learn a short simple choreography.

What you will need:

Comfortable clothing that doesn't restrict your movement. Note that your arms will be going straight above your head potentially exposing your belly if your shirt is too short.

Any low heel, solid, closed toe shoe. You will be lifting your foot up behind you from the knee so be sure to choose a shoe that won't fall off.

When: Friday, February 7th, 2014 from 6:00pm - 7:00pm

Where: Marr-Mac, 8627 – 109 st. Across from the Garneau Theatre, under The Movie Studio.

Fee: $25 if registered by February 3rd.

$30 after February 3rd as a drop-in fee on the day of the class

Registration guidelines: If there are not enough registered by February 3rd, your fee will be returned and the class cancelled. Otherwise, the class is set to run and as of that date the class fee becomes non-refundable.
